MORTGAGE BROKERAGE AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made as of the latest date shown below by the undersigned BROKER, (hereinafter referred to as "Broker") and SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC., a Georgia corporation.

RECITALS

Whereas, Broker is in the business of originating, processing and submitting for approval to mortgage banking firms and financial institutions on behalf of individual borrowers, applications for loans to be secured by real property; and, being duly authorized and licensed by all applicable regulatory agencies to do so, does hereby submit to enter such a relationship with SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC.

SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC., being a fully licensed mortgage banking firm, and as such, is in the business of making such loans, in consideration of such a relationship wherein FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. may consider the acceptance of such loan applications, SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. requires the Broker to fully execute the following as a stipulation of agreement to enter such relationship.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises, and on the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, is the agreement of the parties hereto.

I. GENERAL TERMS, to which the parties hereto do hereby agree:

A. Nothing contained in this Agreement or in connections with Broker's submission of any loan application package to SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. shall create or be deemed to create a partnership, joint venture, agency or employment relationship between Broker and SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC.. Broker shall be exclusively responsible for all of its own costs and expenses in connection with Broker's business and loan processing. Broker represents and warrants that Broker is not in any way affiliated or connected with SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC., including any representation that Broker's office is an office or branch of SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC.

B. Periodic examinations, at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice to Broker, may be performed by SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. and/or their agents and representatives to audit Broker's organization, procedures and practices and to examine such records and policies relating to mortgage loan packages as may be necessary to satisfy SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. that Broker has the ability to perform the duties respective to originating and processing such loan packages, and Broker herein acknowledges the authority hereunder of SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. to perform such review audits.

C. The contents of all loan packages submitted to SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. shall immediately become the property of SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC., and all information therein may be subject to SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. independent verification. Failure or delay by SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. to audit any Loan or to exercise any right, or to enforce any of its rules or regulations shall not act as a waiver of any other right, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right preclude any other or further exercise thereof. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed, or shall constitute, a waiver of any other provision, whether or not similar, nor shall any waiver constitute a continuing waiver, and shall not prevent SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. from exercising any right or remedies, or enforcing any rule or regulation in the future. All remedies shall be cumulative and nonexclusive.

D. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall obligate SOUTHPPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. to approve or fund the loan requested by any loan application submitted by Broker. The loan shall be deemed approved only upon the delivery of SOUTHPPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. express written approval, and shall be funded only after such time as Broker has delivered to SOUTHPPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. any and all conditions placed on such approval, provided such condition(s) are to the satisfaction of SOUTHPPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC., and the funding of any loan submitted and approved hereunder, in the case of an Approved Broker, shall be in the name of SOUTHPPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC., and in the case of an Approved HUD Correspondent, shall be in the Correspondent's name.

E. This agreement shall commence as of the latest date entered below and shall continue for a period of; one year, or, the valid term remaining of any required license or any other certification of authorization to transact business as hereunder intended, as may be required by applicable Federal, State or Local law and/or statute of the governing agency and/or authority, at which time continued submission of any loan application will be conditional upon evidence of Broker's continued ability to perform under those licenses and authorizations, as well as the terms of this agreement.

F. Broker agrees that this Agreement supersedes all previous agreements entered into between the parties hereto and the terms and condition hereof shall apply to and govern all loan brokerage transactions heretofore and hereafter conducted between Broker and SOUTHPPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC.

G. The entering into this agreement does not prevent SOUTHPPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. from subsequently revoking it's agreement to participate hereunder nor shall it restrict SOUTHPPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. from otherwise pursuing any of its rights and remedies as set forth in this agreement should SOUTHPPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. determine that Broker did not or does not satisfy SOUTHPPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC.'S Eligibility Standards or those of any applicable regulatory agency or authority.

H. This agreement may otherwise be terminated by either party, at any time, upon written notice to the other party; provided, however, that the obligations contained herein shall survive such termination.

I. This agreement shall be deemed to be a Contract, its terms and conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Laws of the State of Georgia and the obligations, rights and remedies of the parties hereto shall be determined in accordance with such laws without regard for the principles of conflict of law; and individual loans shall be governed by the laws of the state in which the property is located with regard to any performance at issue relative to the property and/or the respective loan transaction.

J. If any legal action or other proceeding is brought for the enforcement of this Agreement, or because of an alleged dispute, breach, default, or misrepresentation in connection with any of the provisions of this Agreement, the prevailing party or parties shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and other costs incurred in that action or proceeding, in addition to any other relief to which it or they may be entitled by the decree of those proceedings.

K. Where applicable by Law, either party hereto may commence neutral arbitration proceedings against the other to resolve any dispute. Such arbitration proceedings, when acceptable by law, shall be governed by the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association as they may be amended from time to time. The parties hereto do hereby agree that where acceptable by Law, such arbitration shall be the exclusive means of resolving disputes between them and that they shall be bound by the decree of such arbitration. BY SIGNING THIS DOCUMENT, YOU WAIVE CERTAIN LEGAL RIGHTS, INCLUDING THE RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY.

L. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall nevertheless continue in full force and effect.

M. This Agreement, and the rights and duties hereunder are personal to Broker, and accordingly, Broker shall have no right to, and shall not assign, sell or transfer any rights arising hereunder, nor delegate any of Broker's duties and obligations undertaken hereby; and SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. shall have the right to assign its rights and duties hereunder without Broker consent or approval, and Broker terms, duties, obligations, covenants, representation and warranties shall remain valid and enforceable for SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC.'S successors and or assigns.

N. Each party shall perform any further acts and execute and deliver any documents that may be reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

O. Neither the Parties nor anyone, anything, or anybody shall construe this agreement for the benefit or interest of any third parties, persons, or entities. Consequently, the Parties agree no third party shall acquire any rights or interest in this agreement, including but not limited to the underwriting of the loan submission from Broker whether performed, failed to perform, or substantially or insubstantially performed by SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC..

Broker represents that, where restricted by law or agency, said fee shall not be charged to, collected or otherwise accepted by the Broker as compensation for the Up-Front Lock Fee from the Borrower.

C. Broker represents that compensation requested from and paid to Broker by SOUTHPPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. relative to any mortgage loan funded by SOUTHPPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. as a result of Broker's submission, shall not exceed fair market value of services rendered and that said services have in fact been rendered and that such fees and compensation have been duly disclosed to the appropriate parties, and further warrants that Broker will accept no additional compensation from applicant, except as may be prescribed by applicable Law. Broker agrees it is the responsibility of the broker to submit all loan closing conditions prior to closing of the loan.

E. Broker warrants that all loans shall comply with the Federal Reserve Board Regulation Z of the Truth in Lending Act found at 12 CFR 226.36, including payments to loan originators. Broker warrants that all loans shall comply with the anti-steering provision and satisfy the "Safe Harbor" Test of the Rule. Broker affirms its duty to provide satisfactory evidence of compliance with all rules and regulations as requested or needed by SOUTHPPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. within a reasonable time frame. SOUTHPPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. defines a reasonable time frame as within ten (10) business days.

2. Loss of state licensing to perform mortgage loans.
3. Loss of lender/investor access due to exchange of information between lenders, mortgage insurance companies including submission of information to investors, police agencies, and state regulating agencies.
4. Civil Action by applicant/borrower or other parties to the transaction.
5. Agreement to indemnify and hold harmless SouthPoint Financial Services Inc..
6. Loss of HUD approval.
7. Loss of funding facilities.

1. Criminal prosecution.
2. Civil action by SouthPoint Financial Services Inc.
3. Civil action by other parties to a Transaction, such as borrower, seller or real estate agent/broker.
4. Agreement to indemnify and hold harmless SouthPoint Financial Services Inc.
5. Employee termination.
6. Loss of professional license, if any.
7. Adverse effect on credit history.

I have read the foregoing and understand SouthPoint Financial Services Inc. position on "Loan Fraud."

QUALIFIED MORTGAGE RULE – AFFILIATE RELATIONSHIP QUESTIONNAIRE

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (“Bureau”) implemented the Qualified Mortgage Rule (“QM”). To qualify under the QM safe harbor rules, lenders cannot charge borrowers points and fees exceeding 3% of the loan amount. Certain fees charged by “affiliates” of the lender are counted under the QM rule against the 3% maximum. To comply with the Bureau’s QM rule, SouthPoint Financial must determine the amount of fees that are paid by borrowers to the affiliates of SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC.’s Wholesale Brokers (“Broker”). Please answer the questions below regarding your affiliates to assist SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. in calculating the maximum fees under the QM rule that can be paid by consumers for each loan purchased by SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. from Broker.

A company is considered to have control over another entity if it (i) directly or indirectly or acting through one or more persons owns, controls, or has power to vote 25% or more of any class of voting securities of the entity;
- (ii) controls in any manner the election of a majority of the directors or trustees of the entity; or (iii) the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System determines, after notice and opportunity for hearing, that the company directly or indirectly exercises a controlling influence over the management or policies of the other entity.

* If new affiliate relations are established, SOUTHPOINT FINANCIAL SERVICES INC. must be notified within 5 business days.

BROKER COMPENSATION AGREEMENT

Under 12 CFR Part 226, specifically the LO Compensation rules 226.36 (d), the Federal Reserve Board under the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau issued a Final Rule as part of Regulation Z of the Truth in Lending Act, regarding Loan Originator compensation. SouthPoint Financial Services Inc., designed a plan to protect consumers, preserve responsible lending, and continue to allow home ownership to our valued borrowers.

Loan Originator Compensation Rule

1. A loan originator may only receive compensation from one source. The Rule allows Loan Originators to receive compensation up-front from the borrower or from the lender. For every loan transaction submitted to SouthPoint Financial Services Inc., the broker must choose the source of Broker compensation from the following options:

a) Borrower Paid Compensation

Borrower Paid Compensation is Broker compensation paid by the borrower to the Broker from the borrower's own funds or loan proceeds. Borrower Paid Compensation may include seller concessions. Borrower Paid Compensation is negotiated by the Broker directly with the borrower and may vary on each individual loan transaction. Under a Borrower Paid Compensation transaction, the Broker can lower its compensation or offer credit toward third party closing costs. SouthPoint Financial Services Inc. will not be responsible nor a party to any Broker negotiations with the borrower in a Borrower Paid Compensation transaction. BY CHOOSING TO BE PAID BY THE BORROWER, THE BROKER MAY NOT RECEIVE ANY COMPENSATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY FROM ANY OTHER PARTY OR ENTITY TO THE TRANSACTION, OR OUTSIDE OF THE TRANSACTION, INCLUDING THE LENDER.

b) Lender Paid Compensation

Lender Paid Compensation is Broker compensation paid by the Lender SouthPoint Financial Services Inc. to the Broker. When the Lender pays the Broker's compensation, the Broker will be paid according to the Lender Paid Compensation Plan in place as of the Effective Date, notwithstanding any subsequent changes to the Broker's compensation plan after rate lock and prior to loan closing. Broker must select a Lender Paid Compensation Plan by checking the applicable box(es) on the Broker Compensation Election Form. The Broker may select a Lender Paid Compensation Plan with a percentage beginning at three quarters percent (0.75%) and which is available in increments of one eighth of one percent (0.125%) plus a flat fee of $500.00.

In a Lender Paid Compensation transaction, the Broker compensation amount cannot vary per loan transaction. SouthPoint Financial cannot pay the Broker any more or any less than the amount agreed upon in this Addendum. Under a Lender Paid Compensation transaction, Broker agrees that Broker cannot lower Broker's own compensation or offer credits towards third party closing costs that will result in lowering the Broker's compensation. BY CHOOSING THE LENDER PAID COMPENSATION PLAN, BROKER MAY NOT RECEIVE ANY COMPENSATION FROM THE CONSUMER OR ANY OTHER PARTY, PERSON OR ENTITY TO THE TRANSACTION, OR OUTSIDE OF THE TRANSACTION. BROKER CERTIFIES THAT WHEN COMPENSATION IS PAID BY LENDER SUCH AMOUNT IS AND WILL BE BROKER'S SOLE SOURCE OF COMPENSATION.

Changes to Lender Paid Compensation Plan. Both parties agree that changes or revisions to the Lender Paid Compensation Plan will be made as follows:

Frequency of Change. SouthPoint Financial Services will permit changes to the following compensation plan every calendar quarter (Jan. 1, April 1, July 1, Oct. 1) utilizing this same form. Changed compensation applies the first business day of the calendar quarter. SouthPoint Financial Services must receive the change ten (10) business days in advance of the new calendar quarter. SouthPoint Financial Services holds the broker responsible to ensure proper lender-paid compensation for each loan submitted. Changed compensation takes effect for all loans that lock after the changed effective date. SouthPoint Financial Services reserves the right to modify compensation plans according to the following non-exhaustive factors: loan quality, violations of state or federal law, delinquencies, or poor pull-through ratios.

2. Loan originators may not tie compensation to any terms or conditions of the loan. Loan Originators may not tie their compensation to the interest rate and may not increase compensation by selling a higher interest rate.
3. A loan originator may not “steer” a borrower to a loan not in the best interest of the borrower in order to increase compensation. SouthPoint Financial Services will require Loan Originators to offer the following to satisfy the “Safe Harbor” Rule:
  - The Lowest Interest Rate Option;
  - The Lowest Dollar amount for Discount, Origination, Points and Fees;
  - The Loan with the Lowest Interest Rate without any “Risky Features”

Loan Originator Information

- The Federal Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing (SAFE) Act rule defines a loan originator as a broker, a broker company, loan officers, contract processors, or “any person who for compensation or other monetary gain arranges, negotiates, or otherwise obtains an extension of consumer credit for another person.” Each state maintains its own definition that may or may not expand on the Federal SAFE Act. The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) through interpretation of the Dodd-Frank Act further defines a loan originator as an organization or individual that for compensation or other monetary gain performs loan origination activities, including, but not limited to Taking an application; Arranging a credit transaction; Assisting a consumer in applying for credit; Offering or negotiating credit terms; Making an extension of credit; Referring a consumer to a loan originator or creditor; and Advertising or communicating to the public that you can or will perform any loan origination services.
- Compensation includes salaries, commissions, and any financial or similar incentive provided to a loan originator based on any of the terms or conditions of the loan originator's transactions. The Broker-LO Agreement should include ALL payments of value, such as periodic bonuses, awards, services, trips, and/or prizes.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States.

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items.

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships, earlier.

What is FATCA Reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account (other than an account maintained by a foreign financial institution (FFI)), list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9. If you are providing Form W-9 to an FFI to document a joint account, each holder of the account that is a U.S. person must provide a Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note: ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C corporation, or S corporation. Enter the entity's name as shown on the entity's tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a "disregarded entity." See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2, "Business name/disregarded entity name." If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requester already has on file, write NEW at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.SSA.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/Businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. Go to www.irs.gov/Forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or SS-4 mailed to you within 10 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABLE accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Pub. 5027, Identity Theft Information for Taxpayers.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a systemic problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at spam@uce.gov or report them at www.ftc.gov/complaint. You can contact the FTC at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 877-IDTHEFT (877-438-4338). If you have been the victim of identity theft, see www.IdentityTheft.gov and Pub. 5027.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.
